

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A method for computing an out of place FFT in which each stage of the FFT has an identical signal flow geometry. In each stage of the presently disclosed FFT method the group loop has been eliminated, the twiddle factor data is stored in bit-reversed manner, and the output data values are stored with a unity stride.

225033

5

[illegible]